Becker Reveals Sites for Voting

Bob Becker, chief justice of the Student Court, yesterday announced the sites of polling booths and times these booths would be opened during the election for class officers Thursday and Friday.

The locations announced for the polling places are as follows: one will be set up in the Inner Quad, one on the walk in front of the Women's Gym, and a third by the Engineering Building, on the corner of 7th and San Fernando streets.

Each of the polls will open at 9:30 a.m. and are scheduled to close at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Students may vote at any one of the designated locations. Becker states that each student must present his student body card at the booth in order to receive a ballot. Upon receipt of a ballot the student will have his card punched to avoid the possibility of any student voting more than once.

Names listed on the ballot will be for each of the class officers as well as the positions of Junior male and female justice of the Student Court.

Voters should heed a warning issued by Becker that all students who place write in candidates on their ballots make certain that such persons qualify for the office.

Qualifications for the class officers and justice posts are the same as for any student body office. Such candidates must have clear standing, have a 2.0 grade point average for the previous semester, a 2.0 overall grade point and must be an avowed member of the class.

Sub-committee Plan For Next Year's Gigantic Barbecue

The student participation sub-committee of the Centennial Committee yesterday began planning for the gigantic barbecue to be held next year on Wednesday, May 8, according to Dean of Students Stanley Benz, chairman.

The sub-committee is planning to serve 6000 or 7000 people with two-inch barbecued steaks. Everyone will be invited to attend. The barbecue site probably will be at the athletic stadium grounds or at the fairgrounds.

The price of the feed will be at a minimum with faculty men and students doing most of the work. Experts will be consulted for barbecue sauce recipes and barbecuing details, according to Dean Benz.

Dozens of costumed entertainers will perform around the chuck wagon which will be set up at the site, and square dancing and folk dancing will be conducted.

Joan Ereno, one of the students on the sub-committee, reported that the Social Affairs Committee, headed by Bill Squires, has agreed to stage the formal Centennial Ball on Friday, May 10, 1957.

The Centennial seal and slogan will soon be available for groups to place on their stationery, the committee reported.

Ike Suggests Nixon Consider Withdrawing—Magazine Says

NEW YORK — (UP) — Newsweek magazine said yesterday that President Eisenhower has suggested to Vice President Richard M. Nixon "that he consider withdrawing as a candidate for reelection."

The magazine said members of its Washington bureau had talked with friends of both Mr. Eisenhower and Nixon and that these friends agreed the suggestion and the question are still "up in the air."

The magazine said Mr. Eisenhower did not ask Nixon to withdraw, "and the White House let it be known that Nixon could have the vice presidential nomination if he wanted it."

BOMBER PRODUCTION UP

He also told a news conference that "too much emphasis" is being placed on guided missiles in the current controversy over defense policies.

One of the items to be considered at today's session will be Jerry McCarthy's letter of resignation as Public Relations Committee head. McCarthy asks to resign in order to take over his new appointment as Homecoming Committee chairman.

PARTY STATEMENT

WASHINGTON — (UP) — President Eisenhower, in his first political appearance since his second term announcement, said yesterday the Republican Party should base its program on "moral and spiritual values."

"If a political party does not have its foundation in the determination to advance the cause that is right that is moral," he said, "then it is not a party but merely a conspiracy which is to seize power."

Spartans Will Have Top Golf Team

Although the collegiate golf season won't get under way for three weeks, it already is evident that the Spartans will have a strong team this year. This fact was proved recently when Jack Cummings, 19-year-old sophomore, gave the national amateur champion, Harvie Ward, a stiff battle before bowing on the final putt of the 18th hole in the San Francisco City Tournament.

Cummings, however, hasn't established himself as the No. 1 San Jose golfer yet as several divot-diggers are battling for the lead positions. Walt McPherson, golf mentor, expects top results from Ernie George, Charles Leider, Bob Henning, Glenn Dooley, Jim Clark, Gordy Williams and Russ Carley in addition to Cummings. There are also several sophomores and transfers on the squad who could move into the top group.

The SJS newcomer, a transfer from Modesto J.C., shoots a par 72 and will greatly aid the Spartans this season. Although he might be edged out for the No. 1 spot by one of the other Spartans, he is sharp enough to hold his own against any collegiate competition he might encounter.

Schwendinger Is Brilliant Against Tribe

Switching to the basketball front, senior Dick Schwendinger closed out his San Jose State career on the hardwoods in fine style against Stanford Saturday by allowing George Selleck, the Indians' sparkling guard, only four points until four minutes elapsed in the second half. Although "Swish" went out on personals at this point, not once did he foul Selleck.

The 5-8 Spartan guard, not a starter until the final game, displayed poise and coolness all season in a substitute role. If the SJS stalwart was a little taller, he probably would have seen much more action.

Despite Loss, Spartan Nine To Be Tough

Despite the fact that the Spartan baseball club was trounced, 13-5, by Stanford Saturday, it still appears Coach Walt Williams will have an excellent team. Many observers thought San Jose looked good while absorbing the loss. The team showed hitting ability and after some polishing, the infield will be near air-tight. Pitching is the big question for Williams as three hurlers toiled and were hit hard and showed streaks of wildness. You can expect the pitchers to catch up with the hitters before long, and the Spartans will be tough all year.

Bob Borghesani pulled an "iron-man" role for San Jose Saturday, pitching two innings for the baseballers in the afternoon and then turning in an excellent defensive job for the eagers in the evening.

SJS Star Athlete Of Month

Coach Mumby Speaks At Spar-Ten Fete

Russ Camilleri, a main cog on the SJS wrestling team, was named Spartan athlete of the month, by members of the Spar-Ten Club yesterday morning.

The sophomore, SJS wrestler was cited for athletic prowess for the month of February. During that period he won five matches by pins, and dropped only one decision, and that by a one point margin. Camilleri, a normal 191 pounder, competed as a heavy-weight in all these bouts.

Along with the recognition as athlete of the month, Camilleri was presented a traveling bag.

Hugh Mumby, Spartan wrestling coach, was guest speaker of the Spar-Ten club at its 7:30 break fast meeting yesterday.

The 191 pound grappler is rated by Mumby as one of the Spartan best bets in PCI competition which commences this Friday.

Camilleri attended Campbell High School and was active in wrestling there. During a two-year period, he was undefeated, winning 42 matches, 36 of them by pins. He was named the outstanding athlete at Campbell. While in high school, Camilleri was an all-Northern California champion for two years.

Plans for a March 19 luncheon to honor the SJS basketball team also were discussed at the break fast yesterday morning. The Spar-Ten club and Eastside Kiwanis Club will play hosts to the Spartan eagers and awards for the "Most Valuable Player," and "Most Improved Player" will be made at the luncheon.

Tom Crane, captain of State's basketball team, was chosen as athlete of the month for January by the Spar-Ten club.

Bronzan Welcomes 115 Grid Candidates

Coach Bob Bronzan welcomed 115 candidates for varsity spring football practice at the organizational meeting of the team, Monday. It was the largest turnout for football since 1950.

Among the aspirants were many that have piled up an impressive collection of pigskin honors. Top new men were second team All-American Junior College selections, End Art Powell from San Diego and Guard George Barrera of Fullerton.

There was one conspicuous absentee at the organizational meeting, Joe Ulm, potentially San Jose's greatest fullback did not return to school for the spring semester. Ulm started the 1953 season in record breaking fashion by scoring 11 touchdowns in 4 games before being declared ineligible on a technicality.

In 1954 Ulm was injured on the second play of the first game of the season and was sidelined for the entire year. Last year he showed a brief flash of the old form in the Arizona State game, when he gained 101 yards in 22 carries.

According to the SJS Athletic Department, Ulm had been notified to take his physical examination for the army. If he is accepted he will not return to school in the fall of 1956.

Bronzan announced that there will be meetings this week for candidates for the various positions with the guards and backs meeting today and the ends and tackles meeting on Thursday.

He promised a large amount of scrimmage when actual practice starts on April 9.
